

Islands in the Stream

AUSTRALIA AND JAPAN FACE GLOBALISATION

editor
STEPHEN ALOMES

A MAJOR STUDY of how Australia and Japan, two 'island' nations, face the currents of globalisation. Fascinating chapters by distinguished students of Australia and Japan, including Chilla Bulbeck, Yoshio Sugimoto, Stephen Alomes, Richard Light, Hajime Hirai, John Wiseman, Yang Biao, Toshiko Ellis and Yoichi Kibata explore the impact of globalisation. A book which illuminates how contemporary forces influence politics, and shape experiences of social class and gender, sporting culture, popular marketing and consumption, national historical myths of war and peace, and literature in Japan and Australia.
